

Man Reports Robbery in La Crosse

Monday, 13 December 2010 12:19

A La Crosse guy is nursing his wounds after a beat down and robbery this week-end. Cops say the 25 year-old was walking home from the bars downtown on Saturday morning when he was jumped by an SUV full of guys. One of the guys apparently thought the victim had been talking smack about his brother. They got his phone, a bunch of cash, even his house key. They left behind cuts, bruises and, what police say, looks like shoe print on the side of the victim's head. Police say they do have a suspect.