

Meth Makers Back In Jail

Monday, 27 December 2010 12:40

2 alleged Vernon County meth makers are back in jail after being arrested for violating their pre-trial parole after being released following an October grand jury appearance. 33 year old Chris Polus and 33 year old Angela Davis were busted in late September for allegedly running a meth lab in the the Sylvan Glen Supper Club in Stoddard. Both are in the Dane County jail awaiting trial.

Both were arrested following an eight-month investigation by the Vernon County Sheriff's Department. Their trial date has been set for February 2011. If convicted, the pair face a maximum penalty of 20 years in federal prison on each count.

30 year old Kami Spears of Genoa was also arrested at the scene and is still pending any criminal charges.
