

In a leadership position, knowing when to step aside and let a new voice take over can be a tough thing to do. Central Football Coach David Cayler now knows that feeling.

Cayler, made the announcement this morning, that after coaching the Red Raiders for the past 16 season and before that was assistant to Coach Mike Anderson for 6 seasons, he will step aside and let a "fresh face" take the reigns of the football program. Cayler says he is very proud to have had the chance to watch young men grow both on and off the field for as long as he did and is very hopeful that with the kids they have now.....the program will continue to grow.

He says he will still teach in the district
