The good news for a robbery victim in La Crosse is that police have recovered his two flat-screen TVs. Bad news is he's still out several thousand dollars in cash. Police say a guy on the city's northside was beat up and robbed in his apartment by thugs he apparently knows. They stole his two flat screens, his phone and about six grand in cash from a safe. Cops nailed 19 year-old Richard Little as one of the robbers this week-end. They also found the flat screens. One of them stored in a bathtub. Police are still on the track of two of the suspects and have yet to find the missing money.
