

Voter Turnout? I Don't Know

Thursday, 31 March 2011 11:56 -

Quite a bit at stake next Tuesday. City council, school board, 94th assembly and supreme court.....all featured on ballots on election day.

So does Lacrosse City Clerk, Teri Lehrke, expect a huge voter turnout? She really does not know. Maybe 30 percent? Lehrke says this is a hard one to predict.

Lehrke says she did order extra ballots for the spring election.....equal to what a 43 percent turnout would be. The City of Madison has ordered an extra 30 thousand ballots for Tuesday.
