

That's A Lot Of Drugs

Tuesday, 03 May 2011 17:33 -

---

The Onalaska Police Department along with 4 other entities, held a drug drop off event last Saturday and to Dare Officer Jason Jobe's surprise.....they collected 775 pounds of pills, medications, controlled and uncontrolled liquids.

Also collected, 28 pounds of needles.

Jobe says another collection site will be held in November.....meanwhile the Lacrosse County Hazardous Waste Material Site will be holding a similar event this Saturday.