

An Onalaska man appears in court on charges of enticing teenage boys, and secretly videotaping some boys while they were taking showers.

Michael Kulas of Onalaska faces charges including attempted sexual exploitation and possessing child porn. Kulas is suspected of making pornography, and offering boys money to get sexual images of them. Earlier reports on the case incorrectly identified Kulas as the owner of a restaurant in Brice Prairie where he reportedly met some of the boys. He was not the owner.
