A 23-year-old woman is dead after a weekend collision on Highway 35 near Holmen.

Theresa Kroes was one of five women from Onalaska in a car that was rear-ended by a pickup driver while slowing down for a left turn. The other women in the car and the truck driver had minor injuries in the Saturday afternoon crash. The other driver, Jesse Herrmann from Holmen, tried running from the scene, but was later arrested by police. Herrmann could be charged with homicide by drunk-driving.
