

Nurse Arrested for Painkiller Theft

Tuesday, 02 March 2010 09:57 -

A nurse in La Crosse is in hot water for stealing painkillers from her job. Cops say 28 year-old Jennifer Deal at Bethany St. Joseph's has been pocketing Vicodin off the med cart. They're not sure for how long. Bethany St. Joe bosses figured out something was wrong when they were ordering large numbers of painkillers without having any record of them getting administered.
