

Four Suspects Will Be Tried In Hidden Body Case

Four suspects plead 'not guilty' to the charge of hiding a man's body near Red Cloud Park in La Crosse.

The three men and a woman made their pleas this morning before Judge Ramona Gonzalez. They were arrested last month after the body of Anthony Ducharme was found in a wooded area on a hillside. Police believe that Ducharme died after smoking a drug patch with two of the suspects at a house on Wood Street in early August. The men allegedly borrowed a van to take the body to the Indian Hill area, where one defendant threw the corpse down a hill.
