

2 More Could Go Down In Meth Bust

Tuesday, 13 September 2011 10:35 -

Two more drug makers involved in a meth making operation at the Sylvan Glen Supper Club in Stoddard will face trial.

34 year old Wade McLees of Richland Center and 24 year old Cody DeLao of Lacrosse have both been indicted on charges related to the September 2010 meth making operation. Both are accused of making and selling meth with Cody Polus, Angela Davis, Travis Johnson and Amber Johnson in the supper club. Those 4 are already serving prison sentences.

The pair face more then 20 years in prison and will go on trial in January.
