

4 Hurt In Monroe County Crash

Monday, 24 October 2011 08:10 -

4 people were sent to the hospital after a one car crash in Monroe County last night. 35 year old Juana Gutierrez of Tomah was driving on Highway 131 near Wilton when she failed to stop for a stop sign.....drove down an embankment and 300 feet later, came to rest in a creek.

Gutierrez along with her 3 year old and 7 year old children all transported to Tomah Memorial Hospital with minor injuries. Another passenger, 53 year old Marcelino Lopez of Rockland, was airlifted to Gunderson Lutheran in Lacrosse with what were thought to be life threatening injuries.....he was later upgraded to fair condition.

The accident is under investigation by the Monroe County Sherrif's Department.
