

The official reports on recall petition shredding are pretty sparse so far in the drive to recall governor Walker.

La Crosse democratic party chair Andrew Londre says that doesn't minimize how big of a deal it is to destroy recall petitions

That's why he urges volunteers to circulate petitions among friends and family and get them back to the office. One liberal group in the state has offered a ten thousand dollar reward for info leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone who destroys signed recall petitions.
