

Family Arrested for Holiday Weekend

Monday, 28 November 2011 13:14 -

A hairy situation for a La Crosse cop this week-end. Police say the officer responded to a fight in the street on Sunday night at a duplex near city hall. During an arrest of Tavier Holling, the cop suddenly found himself surrounded by Holling's family. Cop says they kept him from cuffing the 19 year-old and Holling's mother and sister rushed him back inside while a couple of Holling brother kept the officer from pursuing. Four other cops responded to assist. Wound up arresting the whole family. Except the mom, apparently.
