

Busiest Week for UPS This Week

Tuesday, 13 December 2011 09:43 -

Busy week for the UPS this week.

The company says this is the busiest for them of the holiday shipping season. At the UPS store in downtown La Crosse, Jim Ehle (ee-lee) sees all kinds of packages that come in, headed for spots all around the globe. There are restrictions; no cigarettes, no alcohol, no firearms.....

All those packages that are getting shipped this week, will find their destination next week, during which the UPS expects to deliver 120 million packages worldwide.
