

Councilman Continues Critique of Mayoral Veto

Thursday, 15 December 2011 12:51 -

More criticism for La Crosse mayor Matt Harter today.. It comes after the mayor's veto this week of unanimous council approval for a temporary firefighter hiring. Council member Bob Seaquist says the mayor maybe should have mentioned something about his opposition to the hiring during city vacancy review committee meetings

The temporary hiring would have replaced a firefighter who's currently on military leave.
