

Winona To Hold Arson Hearing Tonight

Tuesday, 20 December 2011 12:46 -

Still no arrests in the arsons that struck Winona the past couple of weeks. But the public is being invited to a special meeting tonight to get updated on a series of fires that have occurred in Winona over the past six weeks. The West End Neighborhood Watch Group is being reactivated in an effort give police some help in finding the person responsible for the three most recent fires in the central part of the city.

Both the police chief and fire chief will be on hand to discuss the ongoing problem.

The meeting will be held tonight at the Winona Veterans Center on East Sarnia Street starting at 6.
