

Bartender Stabbed After Attempting to Break Up Fight

Wednesday, 21 December 2011 11:59 -

A couple people face charges in La Crosse after a bartender was stabbed last night. A bartender at John's bar downtown was stabbed after trying to break up a fight outside. 32 year-old Anquin St. Junious from La Crosse apparently was the knife-wielder and 35 year-old Kimberly St. Junious, from Rockford, Illinois, was also arrested after the stabbing. The bartender was taken to the hospital for surgery. Anquin was also taken to the hospital but it's unclear whether his injuries also required surgery.