

2012 will bring us Local elections.....a recall of the governor, a presidential race.....referendums.....nothing new for Vicki Burke.

The new La Crosse County Democratic Chair says her plate is completely full.....and it's only January. The first major step for the democratic party is turning in 507 thousand recall signatures a week from today.