

So far in 2012.....booking acts for all ages at the La Crosse Center has looked pretty rosy. Keeping that steady flow of entertainment director Ary Fahey says....is the challenging part of his job sometimes.

Several national recording acts are already selling tickets through April for some big shows.....throw in monster trucks and the Harlem Globetrotters.....Fahey says so far this year they have their bases covered.