

Holmen School Aide Pleads Guilty To Growing Pot

Thursday, 15 March 2012 15:56 -

A Holmen school district employee enters a diversion agreement on charges of growing marijuana at his house...

Dustin Wood pleads guilty to two criminal counts, while three other counts are dropped. All the charges will be dismissed if Wood obeys terms of the agreement for the next two years. Otherwise, he could get more than 10 years in prison. Wood is on unpaid administrative leave from his post as a special education aide for the Holmen schools.
