

Shilling Not Happy With Session

Wednesday, 21 March 2012 22:29 -

La Crosse lawmaker, Jennifer Shilling, is not happy with the shape that Wisconsin is in. And the democratic Senator shared her displeasure with WIZM news.

And Shilling says major initiatives dealing with access to venture capital and mining reform have failed to pass as a result of the unwillingness by Republican legislators to find reasonable compromises. She says that has got to change next year.