

Police Say Drunk Driver Also Texting

Tuesday, 27 March 2012 08:36 -

Among the many drunk drivers collared by La Crosse police this week-end, 28 year-old Richard Roiz may have had some additional obstacles to overcome. Cops say they witnessed Roiz flying down South avenue in his black Crown Vic early Saturday morning. And then watched him hammer a traffic sign up on a median and then keep on driving. They say Roiz blew a .22. But he says he drove up over the median, slammed into the sign, and blew out his front tire because he was texting. So he got a ticket for that, too.