

Last week, the Wisconsin Covenant Foundation began accepting applications for the Wisconsin Workforce Partnership Grant opportunity. An opportunity for Western Technical College to grow some of their programs.

Western President, Lee Raasch, says the program will support the expansion and implementation of degree, diploma and certificate programs that increase the number of program graduates who achieve job placement in occupations at Wisconsin businesses in need of employees with specific skills.