Last November, a 22-year-old La Crosse man died of a heroin overdose...

Now, the person who admits to selling the drug to Bradley Benzing is scheduled for a late summer trial. Kyle Smith's trial is expected to last a week, starting on July 23rd. Smith, from Onalaska, is accused of reckless homicide and delivery of heroin. He's facing eight charges in all at his trial, and told police he has made thousands of dollars a week selling drugs.
