

Police Investigate Robbery

Wednesday, 02 May 2012 10:15 -

La Crosse police still investigating an armed robbery reported last night on the southside. Cops says three people robbed four others inside a place on the two thousand block of 14th street last night. The call they got at about ten reported that somebody had been shot. But no shots actually fired. Although one victim was treated at a hospital after getting pistol whipped in the head. No arrests yet.