

Preliminary results show Tom Barrett had 54 percent of the primary vote Tuesday as he goes on to face Governor Scott Walker in the June 5th recall election. Former Dane County Executive Kathleen Falk was second with 37 percent. Secretary of State Doug La Follette got 3 percent followed by state Sen. Kathleen Vinehout with 4 percent. Vinehout says she's proud of the campaign she ran.

Meanwhile, Governor Scott Walker easily defeated former UW-L student, Arthur Kohl-Riggs, a Walker opponent running as a Republican.
