

Just before 1pm Monday, a 6'0, heavy set man went into the Olde Towne North Pet Store at 1233 Caledonia Street on the City's North Side. The man showed a knife and demanded the clerk empty the cash register. The clerk refused to turn over the money and the suspect fled from the store. He was last seen heading southeast on foot from the area of 1233 Caledonia Street. No money was taken, nor was any one injured during the incident. Police think them man was hanging out in the area of Clinton and Caledonia Street prior to the incident.

La Crosse Police are asking for assistance in identifying the suspect shown from security video. You cna see it on their facebook page.....La Crosse Police Department.

Anyone with information about this crime or can identify the suspect should contact Crime Stoppers at 784-TIPS.