

Two Shooting Incidents In La Crosse...One Man Wounded

Sunday, 22 July 2012 15:57 -

Two cases of gunfire reported in La Crosse over the weekend...

The first happened Saturday afternoon on Charles Street, in north La Crosse. A fight involving members of local gangs resulted in one person firing a handgun several times into the air. Nobody was hurt, but six people were arrested on various charges after the incident.

In the second shooting, a local man was shot and wounded during a fight at a party on South 7th Street early Sunday. Leon Hesser-Thompson is being treated for minor injuries at a local hospital. Nobody has been arrested for firing the shots.
