Three young guys are nursing their wounds after rolling a car near La Crosse's Pettibone Park on Saturday.

Cops say the three had been drinking all day at the park and continued to drink as they were driving away. Car rolled at the Cass street bridge. Police say they found empty beer cans in the car and outside of it. A few injuries but apparently nothing serious. The driver, 19 year-old Justin Longmire from Holmen, faces a number of charges after the accident.
