

To some, changes out of Madison that were made in Wisconsin the past year have been both good and bad. Senate Republican Candidate, Bill Feehan, says he has seen more good than bad. And that could be good for jobs in the future.

Feehan also says he likes the aggressive nature of Governor Scott Walker, as did many living in the state that helped Walker win a recall election.