

One of Three Wanted by Police Arrested

Wednesday, 21 April 2010 16:12 -

One of a trio of wanted crooks has been nailed by La Crosse police. Cops hit on a drug house earlier this month thanks to an anonymous tipster. They found drugs and guns and money and evidence of cooking up some crack but no drug dealers at the house near 16th and Jackson. Immediately the search was on for two brothers, Orlandus and Raymond Lewis as well as Nichole Scholl. Scholl they arrested yesterday; apparently she'd been hauled into jail on something unrelated. The brothers they're still looking for.
