

Cops: Anger Leads to Big Trouble for La Crosse Guy

Wednesday, 21 April 2010 16:17 -

Could be big trouble for a guy who went after a kid on his bike. La Crosse police say a 15 year-old is nursing some pretty wicked back injuries after getting beat up by an irate 46 year-old David Sprain a few weeks back. Cops say Sprain was ticked at kids who had been egging his house. Apparently just blew his top and went after some random kids on bikes in his neighborhood. Cops say Sprain chased the kids with his truck and when one of them took a spill, he drove up, got out and kicked and punched the boy. the boy's been to doctors numerous times already. He told cops he didn't want to report the attack right away because he's afraid of Sprain.
