

Illegal drugs aren't on every street corner. Not quite. But it's getting thick out there, warns Onalaska police officer Jim Page who, with fellow officer, Rich Elias are holding a drug awareness seminar in Onalaska next week. Page says, it's not just kids who are into drugs

Page's advice to parents is to keep close tabs on your kids and constantly update your research on drugs. The drug awareness event in Onalaska is at city hall on Wednesday evening.
