

Stolen Car Found On Fire In Different City

Monday, 01 October 2012 13:44 -

Over the weekend, someone reported to La Crosse Police that their car had been stolen. Well it was found.....a bit charred. Seems as though the car, owned by someone from Osseo, was found in the parking lot of a Sparta restaurant.....on fire.

The owner told police her boyfriend drove the car to La Crosse on Saturday to help someone do some moving in the 1300 block of South Fourth Street.

The car was found Sunday morning around 5, engulfed in flames in the parking lot of Culver's on Hwy 16. There was damage to the parking lot, shrubs and a sign.
