

Feehan Says Flier Not Unexpected

Thursday, 18 October 2012 09:45 -

Campaign hardball comes to a state senate race in western Wisconsin. A campaign flier circulated by the Shilling for Senate campaign digs up a 12 year-old arrest of republican senate candidate Bill Feehan. Feehan was charged with battery in a domestic dispute but that charge was dismissed. The Shilling flier, however, repeats the allegations as if they were proven. Not surprised, says Feehan

\(Click for Audio\)

Feehan pleaded guilty to a disorderly conduct in the dispute.