

He spent a couple of weeks in a Winona County jail cell....now, 39 year old Jeffery Lepsch will call La Crosse County his home for awhile. The man facing two homicide charges in connection with a double murder last month in La Crosse, waived extradition back to the city Thursday. D.A., Tim Gruenke, says the process now is as normal as someone who was just arrested in La Crosse.

\(Click for Audio\)

No word on when Lepsch will make his first court appearance in La Crosse County to face formal homicide charges.