A $2 million cash bond was set last week for the man accused of shooting and killing a father and son at their downtown La Crosse photo shop. 38 year old Jeffrey Lepsch made his initial appearance in La Crosse County court on Friday afternoon. He has been charged with two counts of first degree homicide, armed robbery and possession of a firearm. No problems from Lepsch in jail so far says Sheriff, Steve Helgeson.

Police say he is responsible for the deaths of Paul Petras and his son, A.J. The two were shot inside May's Photo in downtown La Crosse last month. Lepsch's next court appearance is scheduled for Thursday, October 25th.
