

A string of thefts at Holmen High School may have been solved with an arrest yesterday...

The La Crosse County D-A plans to charge 17-year-old Coelton Bosworth with 13 counts of theft. Holmen police chief Mike McHugh says Bosworth apparently used a stolen master key to break into lockers and take cash and other belongings. Bosworth reportedly was trying to get into a gym locker when school staff caught up with him.