That La Crosse County man shot in a stand-off with police a month ago is improving...

Keith Marchbanks could be let out of the hospital within a month, according to both the La Crosse County sheriff's department and the D-A. Investigators have talked with Marchbanks about the events of March 29th at his wife's West Salem home, when they say he stabbed her twice and started the house on fire. Prosecutor Tim Gruenke tells us he hasn't decided yet on what charges could be filed against Marchbanks...who was shot by an Onalaska policeman as he quickly walked toward cops with a butcher knife.
