

Council Approves Biking and Walking Master Plan

Friday, 09 November 2012 10:50 -

A vast master plan for biking and walking improvements points the way forward for the city of La Crosse. The city council has approved a plan that would eventually allocate millions of dollars towards improvements in infrastructure for bicycles and pedestrians. Eventually

\(Click for Audio\)

City council member Dick Swantz. The master plan for biking and walking includes extensive trail improvements, bike lanes and pedestrian crossings, among other things.