

January 2nd could be a day that the country gets pushed back into a recession. That's according to state economists and backed up by La Crosse Democrat, Steve Doyle. Health care providers, seniors and advocates for patient rights are all paying attention to the fiscal cliff.

\(Click for Audio\)

The spending cuts total roughly $1 trillion over the next decade. Tax increases include the expiration of the payroll tax holiday and of the Bush era income tax cuts. Doyle says congress has to act....and act now.