

Riverwatchers Benefit from Fundraiser

Friday, 07 May 2010 09:34 -

A fundraiser in La Crosse will help out in the efforts to keep people out of danger at river's edge. A bowling tournament hosted by Features Sports Bar and Grill has raised 28 hundred dollars for Operation Riverwatch and the police reserves. The money will largely go to buy gear for those who stand watch in and around Riverside park in La Crosse to make certain wayward drunks don't fall in.
