

A statewide drive is under way to collect used gloves, hats, coats and other winter gear. This after a mitten war last year. Danielle Johnson with the Wisconsin Tourism Department says it was Wisconsin Vs. Michigan.

\(Click for Audio\)

This week, the Department launched The Big Bundle Up. All of the gear collected will be donated to Wisconsin charities around the state. A drop off site is located at the welcome center on French Island. Visitors can also donate warm clothing items at Lambeau Field prior to the start of the Green Bay Packers football game on December 9th.