

School Board Approves New School Payment Plan

Monday, 17 December 2012 21:40 -

---

The next step in the La Crosse School District building a new northside elementary school was met last night as the board approved how to pay the close to $15 million to build it. Randy Nelson, Superintendent, says it was a big step forward.

\(Click for Audio\)

Taxpayers won't see a bump in their tax bill until 2014.....the same year the school hopes to open the new school.