

24 Hour Ring A Thon Tonight

Wednesday, 19 December 2012 09:20 -

At 4pm tonight, Salvation Army Volunteer Jason Mickelson is embarking on what could be a very long and snowy night. The 30 year old volunteer will be ringing bells for The Salvation Army for the next 24 hours. He will be ringing at the Festival Foods in Onalaska. Mickelson is hoping to raise $1200, or an average of $50 per hour. As for this Saturday....it's Match day number 2 says Julie Nelson of the Army.

The bell ringing season runs through December 24th. The entire Christmas Red Kettle Campaign runs through the end of January.
