

Holmen Parents Cautioned About Friday

Thursday, 20 December 2012 12:11 -

Letters went home with Holmen High School Students this week explaining some concerns that have been brought to light on facebook and twitter. High School Principal, Bob Baer.

\(Click for Audio\)

Baer says some messages suggested students needing to seclude themselves or take extra measures to protect themselves on Friday. Baer says teachers and administrators are there if your child needs to talk to one of them about these mixed messages.