

More than 200 cameras have been installed in school buildings throughout La Crosse. Technology that allows hallways to be monitored both in school and away. Jason Showen with buildings and grounds believes in the technology....he has close ties to the schools.

\(Click for Audio\)

Showen says after last Friday's events in Connecticut, 30 more cameras will be installed in the near future.....keeping all buildings under watchful eyes.