

If we go over the fiscal cliff tonight.....get ready to pay double for what you pay for a gallon of milk. That from Congressman Ron Kind. No deal....means no Farm Bill.

\(Click for Audio\)

If nothing gets done before tonight at midnight, when the Bush administration's 2001 and 2003 tax cuts expire, broad tax increases will kick in, as will $110 billion in automatic cuts to domestic and military spending.