Some give a little to fight disease. Dave and Jessica Pehl go all out. the Holmen couple is launching their effort to raise five thousand dollars for the Susan G Komen breast cancer 3 day walk in August. Dave's motivation for the fundraising is pretty personal. His grandmother died from breast cancer, as did an aunt. His mom has battled it for decades. Dave and Jessica begin their fundraising campaign today with a beer-tasting event at Java Vino in La Crosse.
